B. The student will participate in a learning activity that will reinforce an understanding of the steps involved applying the SARA model, including:

1. Scanning - Identifying the problem(s)
2. Analysis - Collecting and examining information
3. Response - Developing and implementing solutions based on analysis
4. Assessment - Evaluating the effectiveness of the strategy selected

C. The student will participate in a role-playing learning activity that simulates a public problem-solving meeting with conflicting positions about a local issue. The activity shall focus on and generate discussion, during and after the activity, based upon the following:

1. Community policing philosophy
2. Community mobilization
3. Partnerships
4. Leadership
5. Facilitation techniques
6. Communication skills

D. The student will participate in learning activity depicting a situation in which the subject is initially noncompliant with verbal instructions to produce identification. The student will demonstrate the communication skills to resolve the conflict including:

1. Making an "ethical appeal" based upon a peace officer's professional presence and providing the subject with an opportunity to voluntarily comply (asking)
2. Identifying the law, policy, or rationale that applies to the situation, answering the subject's implied question "why"?, and providing another opportunity for the subject to voluntarily comply (setting context)
3. Explaining the options or courses of action which could be taken by the peace officer and their potential personal consequences to the subject, and providing the subject with yet another opportunity to voluntarily comply (presenting options)
4. Taking the action appropriate to the situation if the subject fails to voluntarily comply (e.g., arrest)
