Subject: Discontinue Use of CD-ROM Courses for Self-Paced Training

In 2000, POST developed select self-paced training courses distributed on CD-ROM. Since POST's Learning Portal was launched, as a matter of cost-efficiency and improved accessibility, POST discontinued distributing courses on CD-ROM and has provided them solely on-line via the Learning Portal.

All of the self-paced courses originally released on CD-ROM are available on the Learning Portal. Many have since been updated. Because outdated CD-ROM courses can inadvertently be presented as current training this format of training delivery should no longer be used. To guarantee currency of content all self-paced training courses should be completed via POST's Learning Portal.

Courses completed on the Learning Portal automatically post CPT credit to the student's profile. No roster is required.

You may direct your questions about the POST Learning Portal to the help line at (877) ASK-LTRC or by Email at Askltrc@post.ca.gov.
