Bulletin: No. 2018-31

Subject: Notice of Proposed Regulatory Action – Amend Commission Regulation 1052, Requirements for Course Certification

At the June 23, 2018 meeting, the commission authorized staff to develop, and submit for public comment, proposed changes to Regulation 1052(g) regarding pilot programs.

Currently, Regulation 1052(g), does not outline a clear process for pilot program implementation. In order to better serve law enforcement, the community, and stay ahead of emerging and contemporary issues, POST is proposing changes to the regulation that will clarify the process for implementing a pilot program. The proposed changes would allow POST's Executive Director, and the Commission, to authorize a Pilot Program involving various changes to certification, regulation, course content and/or hours, to determine if the proposed changes would be effective and beneficial to the field. The proposed changes are applicable to all POST-certified courses.

The proposed changes will be presented to the Commission at the October 2018 meeting for approval pending results of the public comment period. If comments are received that require changes be made to the proposed language, the modified language will be provided to the Commission at the February 2019 meeting for approval and a 15-day Notice with public comment period will be completed.

The attached notice describes the proposed changes, includes an invitation for written input on this proposal, the deadline for written comments, and information about requesting a public hearing. The following related information is available on the POST Website.

Authority and Reference

This proposal is made pursuant to the authority vested by Penal Code Section 13503 (authority of the Commission on POST) and Penal Code section 13506 (POST authority to adopt regulations). This proposal is intended to interpret, implement, and make specific Penal Code section 13503(e), which authorizes POST to develop and implement programs to increase the effectiveness of law enforcement, including programs involving training and education courses.

Informative Digest/Policy Statement Overview

Currently, Regulation 1052(g), does not outline a clear process for pilot program implementation. In order to better serve law enforcement, the community, and stay ahead of emerging and contemporary issues, POST is proposing changes to the regulation that will clarify the process for implementing a pilot program. The proposed changes would allow POST's Executive Director, and the Commission, to authorize a Pilot Program to evaluate, and change, current regulations to include the the addition and/or elimination of course hours, course content, and course certification requirements. Evaluating, and changing, current regulations will include collaboration with Subject Matter Experts (SME's), law enforcement officials, and community stakeholders to elicit input on course content and/or hours. The proposed changes are applicable to all POST-certified courses.

The ability to add and/or eliminate hours and/or content from courses, in addition to modifying the course certification process, is necessary to ensure POST is able to continue to meet the needs of agencies, respond to emerging trends, and provide credit for training to those individuals attending a pilot program course.

The benefits of the proposed amendments to the regulations will increase the efficiency of the state of California in delivering services to stakeholders. Thus, the law enforcement standards are maintained and effective in preserving peace, protection of public health, safety, and welfare in California. There would be no impact that would affect worker safety or the State's environment.

During the process of developing these regulations and amendments, the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training has conducted a search of any similar regulations on this topic and has concluded that these regulations are neither inconsistent nor incompatible with existing State regulations.

Adoption of Proposed Regulations

Following the public comment period, the Commission may adopt the proposal substantially as set forth without further notice, or the Commission may modify the proposal if such modifications remain sufficiently related to the text as described in the Informative Digest. If the Commission makes changes to the language before the date of adoption, the text of any modified language, clearly indicated, will be made available at least 15 days before adoption to all persons whose comments were received by POST during the public comment period and to all persons who request notification from POST of the availability of such changes. A request for the modified text should be addressed to the agency official designated in this notice. The Commission will accept written comments on the modified text for 15 days after the date that the revised text is made available.

Non-Discretionary Costs/Savings to Local Agencies: None

Local Mandate: None

Costs to any Local Agency or School District for which Government Code sections 17500 - 17630 requires reimbursement: None

Significant Statewide Adverse Economic Impact Directly Affecting California Businesses, including Small Business: The Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training has made an initial determination that the amended regulations will not have a significant statewide adverse economic impact directly affecting California businesses, including the ability of California businesses to compete with businesses in other states. The Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training has found that the proposed amendments will not affect California businesses, including small businesses, because the Commission sets selection and training standards for law enforcement which does not impact California businesses, including small businesses.

Cost Impacts on Representative Private Persons or Businesses: The Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training is not aware of any cost impacts that a representative private person or business would necessarily incur in reasonable compliance with the proposed action.

Effect on Housing Costs: The Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training has made an initial determination that the proposed regulation would have no effect on housing costs.

Results of Economic Impact Assessment per Gov. Code section 11346.3(b)

The adoption of the proposed amendments of regulations will neither create nor eliminate jobs in the State of California, nor result in the elimination of existing businesses or create or expand businesses in the State of California.

Benefits Anticipated:

The benefits of the proposed amendments to the regulations will increase the efficiency of the state of California in delivering services to stakeholders. Thus, the law enforcement standards are maintained and effective in preserving peace, protection of public health, safety, and welfare in California. There would be no impact that would affect worker safety or the State's environment.

Consideration of Alternatives

To take this action, the Commission must determine that no reasonable alternative considered by the Commission, or otherwise identified and brought to the attention of the Commission, would be more effective in carrying out the purpose for which the action is proposed, or would be as effective as and less burdensome to affected private persons than the proposed action, or would be more cost-effective to affected private persons and equally effective in implementing the statutory policy or other provision of law than the proposed action.
