RE: Commission on Peace Officers Standards and Training - Annual Report on Training for Law Enforcement

This annual report provides information as required per Penal Code §13503.5 on the overall effectiveness of any additional funding appropriated by the Legislature on or after July 1, 2019, in improving peace officer training.

This report will provide the Legislature and other interested parties with the total number of peace officers trained, broken down by law enforcement agency, course taken, and how the training was delivered (online or in-person). It also includes the descriptions of the courses taken, the duration of the course and the skills addressed in the training.

Should you have any questions about this report, please contact Ms. Meagan Catafi, POST Legislative Liaison, at (916) 227-2809.

Sincerely,

Manuel Alvarez, Jr.
Executive Director
Commission on Peace Officers Standards and Training

Cc: Members, California State Legislature
