Academy Instructor Certificate Program (AICP)
Regulation 1009

§ 1009. Academy Instructor Certificate Program (AICP).

(a) The Academy Instructor Certificate Program

The AICP is designed to promote general instructional excellence in instructors who teach Regular Basic Course curriculum.

(1) There are two AICP components:

- (A) Academy Instructor Certification Course (AICC) or Equivalency
- (B) POST Academy Instructor Certificate

(2) Effective March 1, 2008, each Regular Basic Course (RBC) academy shall participate in the AICP program by following the requirements specified in this regulation. A participating academy shall require certification within 12 months of appointment as an RBC instructor, -of all Regular Basic Course instructional staff. For purposes of this definition, appointment as an RBC instructor shall be assessed as the date the instructor first commences instruction. A participating academy that employs instructors who fail to become certificated within the required time-period is subject to removal from the AICP, and decertification as basic course presenter pursuant to Regulation 1057.

(3) Effective January 1, 2011, each Regular Basic Course - Modular Format presenter, that is not an academy, shall participate in the AICP program by following the requirements specified in this regulation. A participating presenter shall require certification of all Regular Basic Course instructional staff within 12 months of appointment as an RBC instructor. For purposes of this definition, appointment as an RBC instructor shall be assessed as the date the instructor first commences instruction. A participating presenter that employs instructors who fail to become certificated within the required time-period is subject to removal from the AICP and decertification as a basic course presenter pursuant to Regulation 1057.
