

San Francisco State University Police Department

Police Officer Cadet

Salary Range: $3,576/Monthly
Full-Time (1.0) /Temporary
Job Vacancy #10436

The Cadet is a non-sworn officer in a trainee capacity. Incumbents attend a Peace Officer Standards and Training (P.O.S.T.) certified academy to develop the minimum qualifications necessary to assume a position as a sworn police officer. Upon successful completion of the required P.O.S.T. training within the required time-frame and the discretion of management, the Police Officer Cadet may be appointed to the classification of Police Officer (Class Code 8350) on a probationary basis.

The primary responsibility of the Cadet is to attend training sessions to learn the principles, practices and theory of criminal and civil law enforcement and codified and case law. The cadet also receives training in report writing, physical fitness techniques, firearms use and maintenance, and arrest and control techniques. Under close supervision, the Cadet may assist other police officers in the performance of their duties. For more information contact Lt. Allen Klemme at aklemme@sfsu.edu.
